

Bryan Keller, Chief Executive Officer, Keller Logistics Group

Bryan Keller is the Chief Executive Officer of Keller Logistics Group, where he has driven the company's strategic expansion since 2000. Under his leadership, Keller has evolved into a full-spectrum logistics provider by launching new business units, embracing innovation, and earning national recognition for growth and excellence.

Beyond his executive role, Bryan is a passionate advocate for community and country. He founded the Keller Family Foundation and Operation K.A.V.I.C. (Keller Assists Veterans In Crisis) to give back to local families and support military veterans in need. A respected civic leader, he serves on several organizational boards and is committed to shaping a stronger future for both his industry and his hometown. When he's not leading Keller or championing charitable efforts, Bryan enjoys endurance sports and spending time with his family
