

Department of Transportation

Randy Lane, Statewide Planning Manager, Ohio Department of Transportation

Randy Lane is the Statewide Planning Manager for the Ohio Department of Transportation, responsible for development of the state's long-range transportation and supporting plans, statewide freight and maritime coordination, and oversight of regional transportation planning programs administered by Ohio's Metropolitan Planning Organization's (MPO) and Rural Transportation Planning Organization's (RTPO). Prior to his current role, Randy served as Administrator of ODOT's Office of Local Programs and the Director of Programming for the Northeast Ohio Areawide Coordinating Agency (NOACA), the MPO for the Cleveland urbanized area.